Re: SEC v. Edward Bronson, et al., Case No. 12-cv-6421 (KMK)

Dear Judge Karas:

I write to convey the message I received from Mrs. Bronson this morning and request the Court's guidance as to how we should proceed. The below is a verbatim quote of the relevant portion of Mrs. Bronson's message:

Please write to the judge that we have advised you that we have been working diligently to secure substitute counsel, that it has been complicated by Ed's incarceration and the restraining order on the funds; but that we have represented to you that we believe we will have substitute counsel retained by Tuesday of next week, obviating the need for you to file your response to my letter.

Pursuant to my January 12, 2023 letter to the Court, which the Court endorsed on the same date (see Dkt. No. 456), my firm has the following upcoming deadlines:

- January 20, 2023: Notify the Court by letter if the Bronsons have not retained substitute counsel by January 19, 2023; and
- January 25, 2023: Submit a response to Mrs. Bronson's January 9 letter.

If the Court is inclined to modify the above deadlines based on Mrs. Bronson's representations, I respectfully propose the following:

- January 25, 2023: Notify the Court by letter if the Bronsons have not retained substitute counsel by January 24, 2023; and
- February 1, 2023: Submit a response to Mrs. Bronson's January 9 letter.

The revised schedule is approved.

So Ordered.

1/19/23

Respectfully yours,

/s/ Judd Burstein
